

Jesus, the Light of the World

When Captain Olafson and the mission boat crew brought the cousins to Guardian Island, they stayed for dinner. Captain Olafson read aloud the Bible story about Jesus calming the storm. He said that Jesus is an anchor for the soul and a lighthouse for the lost (page 32). At the end of the story, Billy shows his Good Hope pin to April (pages 150-151).

1. What does April say the lighthouse stands for?

2. What does Billy say the anchor means?

3. Can you think of some places in the story when his faith in Jesus was like a light or an anchor to Billy?

4. Tell about a time when your faith in Jesus helped you through some difficulty.
